MASSACHUSETTS.*Regulations of Town Boards of Health—Publication. (Chap. 90, Act Feb. 25, 1914.)

Section 14 of chapter 75 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by striking out the words "if there is no such newspaper," in the second and third lines, so as to read as follows:

SEC. 14. The board of health of a town shall publish all regulations made by it in a newspaper of its town, or shall post them up in a public place in the town. Such publication or posting shall be notice to all persons.

OHIO.*Common Drinking Cups and Common Towels—Prohibited in Certain Places. (Reg. Bd. of H., Mar. 19, 1914.)

RULE 1. That common carriers shall not provide in cars, vehicles, vessels, or conveyances operated in traffic within the State, or in depots, waiting rooms or other places used by passengers traveling to various parts of the State, any drinking cup, glass, or vessel for common use; and that no school, church, hospital, workshop, factory, hotel, saloon, restaurant, store, telephone exchange, telegraph office, or any office building, or public building in the State shall provide any drinking cup, glass, or vessel for common use: Provided, That this regulation shall not be held to preclude the use of drinking cups, glasses, or vessels which have been thoroughly cleansed by washing in boiling water after use by each individual, nor shall it be held to preclude the use of sanitary devices for individual use only.

RULE 2. That common carriers shall not provide in any car, vehicle, vessel, or conveyance operated in traffic within the State, or in depots, waiting rooms, or other places used by passengers traveling to various parts of the State, any towel for use by more than one person; and that schools, churches, hospitals, workshops, factories, hotels, saloons, restaurants, stores, telephone exchanges, telegraph offices, or any office buildings or public buildings in the State shall not provide any towel for use by more than one person: Provided, That this regulation shall not be held to preclude the use of towels that have been sterilized in boiling water after use by each individual, nor shall it be held to preclude the use of sanitary towels for individual use only.
